SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
CASE NO. 20-CIV-21964-CMA

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,
Plaintiff,

v.

TCA FUND MANAGEMENT GROUP CORP.,
et al.,
Defendants.

RECEIVER'S MOTION TO CONFIRM AND/OR APPROVE AUTHORITY TO SELL THE ASSETS OF SPV CHAMPION PAIN CARE CORPORATION

Jonathan E. Perlman, Esq., court-appointed Receiver (the "Receiver") of the Receivership Entities,¹ by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion to Confirm and/or Approve Authority to Sell the Assets of SPV Champion Pain Care Corporation ("Champion Pain").

BACKGROUND

1. On May 11, 2020, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") filed its Complaint for Injunctive Relief against TCA Fund Management Group, Corp. ("FMGC"), TCA Global Credit Fund GP, Ltd. ("GP") (collectively, "Receivership Defendants"), and TCA Global Credit Fund, LP ("Feeder LP"), TCA Global Credit Fund, Ltd. ("Feeder Ltd."), and TCA Global Credit Master Fund, LP ("Master Fund") (collectively, "Relief Defendants") (Receivership Defendants and Relief Defendants are collectively referred to as "Defendants"). [ECF No. 1].

2. The SEC filed an Expedited Motion for Appointment of Receiver. [ECF No. 3].

¹ All terms not specifically defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the SEC's Motion for Appointment of Receiver [ECF No. 3] and the Court's Appointment Order [ECF No. 5], and the Court's First Expansion Order [ECF No. 16].

3. On the same day, the Court granted the motion and appointed Jonathan E. Perlman, Esq., of the law firm Genovese Joblove & Battista, P.A. (“GJB”), as permanent Receiver over the Receivership Entities [ECF No. 5] (“Appointment Order”).

4. Pursuant to the Appointment Order, the Receiver “may, without further Order of the Court, transfer, compromise, or otherwise dispose of any Receivership Property, other than real estate, in the ordinary course of business, on terms and in the manner the Receiver deems most beneficial to the Receivership Estate, and with due regard to the realization of the true and proper value of such Receivership Property.” [Id. at § IX ¶ 31].

5. One such Receivership Property is Champion Pain, which is a special purpose vehicle (“SPV”) that is 100% owned by Master Fund.

6. Prior to the inception of the Receivership, Champion Pain was formed from the foreclosure on debt through an Article 9 UCC foreclosure sale.

7. Champion Pain is a service company providing bookkeeping and back office services to physicians and physicians groups. It was initially formed with the intent of building out a national chain of pain management clinics, and started with the acquisition of two separate medical practices (which are the subject of the Asset Purchase Agreements explained further below). However, the goal of building the national chain of pain management clinics did not come to fruition and no other medical practices were purchased.

8. Due to strict licensing requirements for pain management clinics, the original entities (and buyers under the Asset Purchase Agreements below)—PhysiMed, P.A. (“PhysiMed”) and Ouch, P.A. (“Ouch”)—remained operating the two separate practices while Master Fund employees pursued entity level licensing in order to operate the practices themselves.

9. Master Fund never obtained such licensing, however, and the operations of Champion Pain remained in the individual practices and with PhysiMed and Ouch.

10. The individual practices have separate doctors, but there is some overlap between the operations and management. Each practice has a separate Medicare billing number, collects payments in its own name, and the employees are employed by each entity separately.

11. Due to the unique nature of the industry, the individual licensing issues that arise with such a regulated field, and the lack of market for pain management clinics at the present time, the Receiver and his professionals determined it was in the best interest of the Receivership Estate to enter into two separate Asset Purchase Agreements, one for each practice, to sell the assets of Champion Pain back to the original entities and doctors.²

12. The Receiver and his professionals have been diligently and actively pursuing sale opportunities since the start of the Receivership for Champion Pain and have negotiated the attached Asset Purchase Agreements.

13. The marketing and negotiation of the sale of Champion Pain's assets was overseen by the Receiver's corporate restructuring officer, Development Specialist, Inc. ("DSI").

14. The Receiver has consulted with his professionals and evaluated the Asset Purchase Agreements, and he has concluded that the best way to monetize Master Fund's interest in Champion Pain was to sell the assets of the practices back to the original entities and the doctors, because the market for pain management clinics has recently plummeted.

15. As such, it is in the best interest of the Receivership Estate to enter into the Asset Purchase Agreements attached hereto.

² A copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement between Champion Pain, as seller, and PhysiMed and Dr. Robert R. Silva, as buyers is attached hereto as Exhibit "A." A copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement between Champion Pain, as seller, and Ouch, Dr. Jyoti Patel, and Dr. Elena Stanescu, as buyers, is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

16. This sale of Champion Pain's assets would result in two lump sum payments to the Receivership Estate in the amounts of $44,000.00 and $146,000.00.

17. Accordingly, the Receiver seeks confirmation and/or approval to enter into the attached Asset Purchase Agreements for the sale of Champion Pain's assets and to consummate the sale transaction set forth therein.

ARGUMENT

18. 28 U.S.C. §§ 2001 and 2004 set forth the requirements for the sale of real property and personalty generally. Section 2004 provides that "[a]ny personal property sold under order or decree of any court of the United States shall be sold in accordance with Section 2001 of this title, unless the court orders otherwise." 28 U.S.C. § 2004 (emphasis added).

19. The Appointment Order specifically authorizes the Receiver to "transfer, compromise, or otherwise dispose of any Receivership Property, other than real estate, in the ordinary course of business on terms and in the manner the Receiver deems most beneficial to the Receivership Estate, and with due regard to the realization of the true and proper value of such Receivership Property." [ECF No. 5 at IX ¶ 31].

20. A determination as to whether the receiver's motion to approve a sale should be granted is founded in the court's inherent equitable power. See S.E.C. v. Credit Bancorp Ltd., 290 F.3d 80, 82-83 (2d Cir. 2002) (a receivership court has broad equitable authority to issue orders necessary for the proper administration of the estate and all of the assets and property thereof); see also Gockstetter v. Williams, 9 F.2d 354, 357 (9th Cir. 1925) ("In authorizing the sale of property by receivers, courts of equity are vested with broad discretion as to price and terms.").

21. This is especially true where the sale represents the receiver's exercise of his/her sound business discretion and judgment as a course of action that the receiver attests is in the best interests of the receivership estate. The receiver's judgment in these matters is entitled to great judicial deference. See In re JFD Enter., Inc., 2000 WL 560189, *5 (1st Cir. 2000) ("The trustee has ample discretion to administer the estate, including authority to conduct public or private sales of estate property. Courts have much discretion on whether to approve proposed sales, but the trustee's business judgment is subject to great judicial deference.") (internal citations omitted). The statutes governing the sale of personal property by a receiver allow the court flexibility to modify sale procedures as appropriate under the circumstances. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 2001 and 2004.

22. In SEC v. Morriss, the court found sufficient grounds existed to authorize the receiver's sale of preferred and common stock outside the statutory scheme set forth in 28 U.S.C. §§ 2001 and 2004. No. 4:12-CV-80 (CEJ), 2014 WL 13247528 (E.D. Mo. April 2, 2014). In Morriss, the receivership owned shares of preferred and common stock in a private financial software company. Id. at *1. The receiver sought authorization to sell those shares back to the company. Id. The receiver represented to the court that the pool of buyers of the shares of the company was limited and since the company was a private company, it was under no obligation to provide the information and diligence a serious potential buyer would require. Id. Additionally, an accounting firm evaluated the offer and concluded that the share prices offered would give the receivership "a rate of return commensurate with the expected returns of venture capitalists in start-up and early development companies. Id. Further, the purchase provides liquidity for what would otherwise be an illiquid long-term investment." In addition to finding sufficient grounds to authorize the sale outside of the statutory scheme, the court found that the offer by the company represented the best price for the preferred and common stock under the circumstances. Id.

23. In this case, the sales process and negotiation of the Asset Purchase Agreements was overseen by the Receiver's corporate restructuring officer, DSI.

24. Due to the unique nature of Champion Pain and the medical practices at issue, the Receiver cannot sell the practices to third parties as the practices operate with their own individual licenses that cannot be transferred. Moreover, the doctors' licenses that are associated with the practices cannot be transferred, as they are also individually owned.

25. Accordingly, throughout the sales process, DSI only received serious interest in the purchase of Champion Pain's assets from the original entities and the doctors themselves. This was not unexpected given the state of the business of Champion Pain and the unique nature of the industry.

26. The offer to buy the assets of Champion Pain by the original entities and the doctors associated with each medical practice is the best possible opportunity for the Receivership Estate, as it is the best offer that has been received.

27. Accordingly, the Receiver seeks confirmation and/or approval of authority to enter into the Asset Purchase Agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and "B," and to consummate the sale transaction set forth therein.

WHEREFORE, Receiver, Jonathan E. Perlman, by and through his undersigned counsel respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant the Motion to confirm the Receiver's authority to enter into the referenced Asset Purchase Agreements of Champion Pain Care Corporation in order to recover the funds for the benefit of the Receivership Estate and for such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

S.D. Fla. L.R. 7.1(A)(3) CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

The undersigned hereby certifies that counsel for the Receiver conferred with counsel for the SEC on September 22, 2021 via email, regarding the requested relief and is authorized to represent that the SEC has no objection to the relief requested herein.

Buyers assume the entire cost of all necessary servicing or repair should defects appear. The Receiver and Seller have made no warranty or representation whatsoever regarding the fitness for a particular purpose, quality or merchantability of the Assets. Buyers agree to require that this release and waiver be included as a term in any future sale or lease of the Assets, and that Buyers shall indemnify, defend, reimburse and hold the Receiver and Seller harmless from any claim, suit, demand, damage, liability or expense resulting from the failure to do so. This waiver shall act as a complete bar and defense against any released or waived claim.

ARTICLE IV

RELEASE

4.01 Mutual Release and Covenant not to Sue. It is the specific intent of each Buyer for itself and on behalf of its affiliates and each of its and their respective members, partners, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, employees, affiliates, agents, successors and assigns (collectively with each Buyer, the "Buyer Releasors") and Seller and its affiliates, successors, assigns, agents, and all persons acting by, through or under each of them (collectively with Seller, the "Seller Releasors") to specifically forever settle all claims, other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement, that such Buyer Releasor may have against any Seller Releasor and that any Seller Releasor may have against any Buyer Releasor, whether they be known or unknown, matured or unmatured or otherwise, including all further costs and attorneys' fees derived therefrom. Each Releasor also represents, warrants and agrees that it has not transferred or assigned any of the released claims and is the sole owner of such rights being released hereby, and that by signing this Agreement, such Releasor additionally covenants not to, and to cause its affiliates not to, sue or to file any complaint of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in any way relating to any claim released hereby. Except for the obligations set forth in this Agreement, which are not released hereby, each Releasor agrees that the releases set forth in this Section (collectively, this "Release") extend to all claims which such Releasor knows or suspects to exist in its or its affiliates' favor or believes may come into existence in the future. Except for the obligations set forth in this Agreement, which are not released hereby, each Releasor intends this Release to be a full and complete release in satisfaction of all claims, whether or not known or suspected by such Releasor or its affiliates to exist in its favor at the time of execution of this Release. The provisions of this Release may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for any injunction against, any action, suit or other proceeding that may be instituted, prosecuted or attempted in breach of this Release. This Release however does not release any claims or judgments belonging to the Receiver or Seller against Garland Brown.

4.02 Special Release. Except as described below and subject to applicable law, each Buyer, and as to PhysiMed, its respective officers, directors, managers, owners, employees, and agents, agrees and covenants not to file any suit, charge or complaint against the Seller or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates, or the Receivership, their present and former agents, employees, officers, directors, successors, and assigns, either individually or collectively as the case may be (collectively, the "Released Parties") in any court or administrative agency, with regard to any claim, demand, liability or obligation arising out of the Principal of PhysiMed's employment with the Seller or separation therefrom other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement. The Principal of PhysiMed represents that no claim, complaints, charges, or other proceedings are pending in any court, administrative agency, commission or other forum relating directly or indirectly to their respective employment by the Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, The Principal of PhysiMed agrees to waive his respective right to recover monetary damages in any charge or lawsuit filed by the Principal of PhysiMed or anyone else on his behalf. For and in consideration of the benefits the Principal of PhysiMed shall receive as a consequence to the transaction contemplated hereby, the Principal of PhysiMed, on his own behalf and on behalf, his heirs, executors, successors and assigns, hereby releases and forever discharges the Seller from any and all claims, demands, obligations, losses, causes of action, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees and all liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, which the Principal of PhysiMed has or may have against the Seller as a result of employment by and subsequent termination as an employee of the Seller, up to the date of the execution of this Agreement other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement. This includes but is not limited to claims at law or equity or sounding in contract (express or implied) or tort arising under state workers' compensation claims or state workers' compensation laws (if applicable), or federal, state, or local laws prohibiting religion, national origin, color, age, sex, race, disability, veteran or any other forms of discrimination. This further includes any and all claims arising under the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (ELSA), the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act of 2009, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the Warn Act, Section 1981, the Equal Pay Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, or the Employee-Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), as amended, or claims growing out of any legal restrictions on the Seller's right to terminate its employees. The Principal of PhysiMed however, may challenge the validity of any ADEA release contained in this Agreement. If the Principal of PhysiMed breaches this covenant, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, he agrees that he will indemnify the Seller for all damages and expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Seller in defending, participating in, or investigating any matter or proceeding covered by this Section 4.02; provided however, that the indemnity obligations of this Section 4.02 do not apply to a claim challenging the knowing and voluntary nature of any ADEA release portion of this Agreement. In any ADEA action, the Seller will have the right to recover attorney's fees and costs consistent with the provisions of the ADEA. When used in this Section 4.02, the term Seller shall include any affiliates of Seller which employed the Principal of PhysiMed. The Principal of PhysiMed also acknowledges that (a) he has the right to revoke his release of any claims arising under the ADEA within seven (7) calendar days after signing this Agreement by providing written notice of revocation to Seller.

Buyers agree to require that this release and waiver be included as a term in any future sale or lease of the Assets, and that Buyers shall indemnify, defend, reimburse and hold the Seller and the Receiver harmless from any claim, suit, demand, damage, liability or expense resulting from the failure to do so. This waiver shall act as a complete bar and defense against any released or waived claim.

(b) Power and Authority. Each Buyer has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and carry out all of its obligations under this Agreement. The managers, stockholders, or officers of Ouch who shall execute and deliver this Agreement and all other documents or agreements delivered herewith have been duly authorized to do so by all requisite action.

(c) No Litigation. There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or threatened in any court or before any administrative agency which would prevent any Buyer from completing this transaction.

ARTICLE IV

RELEASE

4.01 Mutual Release and Covenant not to Sue. It is the specific intent of each Buyer for itself and on behalf of its affiliates and each of its and their respective members, partners, managers, officers, directors, shareholders, employees, affiliates, agents, successors and assigns (collectively with each Buyer, the "Buyer Releasers") and Seller and its affiliates, successors, assigns, agents, and all persons acting by, through or under each of them (collectively with Seller, the "Seller Releasers") to specifically forever settle all claims, other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement, that such Buyer Releasor may have against any Seller Releasor and that any Seller Releasor may have against any Buyer Releasor, whether they be known or unknown, matured or unmatured or otherwise, including all further costs and attorneys' fees derived therefrom. Each Releasor also represents, warrants and agrees that it has not transferred or assigned any of the released claims and is the sole owner of such rights being released hereby, and that by signing this Agreement, such Releasor additionally covenants not to, and to cause its affiliates not to, sue or to file any complaint of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in any way relating to any claim released hereby. Except for the obligations set forth in this Agreement, which are not released hereby, each Releasor agrees that the releases set forth in this Section (collectively, this "Release") extend to all claims which such Releasor knows or suspects to exist in its or its affiliates' favor or believes may come into existence in the future. Except for the obligations set forth in this Agreement, which are not released hereby, each Releasor intends this Release to be a full and complete release in satisfaction of all claims, whether or not known or suspected by such Releasor or its affiliates to exist in its favor at the time of execution of this Release. The provisions of this Release may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for any injunction against, any action, suit or other proceeding that may be instituted, prosecuted or attempted in breach of this Release. This Release however does not release any claims or judgments belonging to the Receiver or Seller against Garland Brown.

4.02 Special Release. Except as described below and subject to applicable law, each Buyer, and as to Ouch, its respective officers, directors, managers, owners, employees, and agents, agrees and covenants not to file any suit, charge or complaint against the Seller or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates, or the Receivership, their present and former agents, employees, officers, directors, successors, and assigns, either individually or collectively as the case may be (collectively, the "Released Parties") in any court or administrative agency, with regard to any claim, demand, liability or obligation arising out of each Principal of Ouch's employment with the Seller or separation therefrom other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement. Each Principal of Ouch represents that no claim, complaints, charges, or other proceedings are pending in any court, administrative agency, commission or other forum relating directly or indirectly to their respective employment by the Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Each Principal of Ouch agrees to waive their respective right to recover monetary damages in any charge or lawsuit filed by the Principals of Ouch or anyone else on their behalf. For and in consideration of the benefits each Principal of Ouch shall receive as a consequence to the transaction contemplated hereby, each Principal of Ouch, on their own behalf and on behalf, their heirs, executors, successors and assigns, hereby releases and forever discharges the Seller from any and all claims, demands, obligations, losses, causes of action, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees and all liabilities whatsoever, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, which the Principals of Ouch have or may have against the Seller as a result of employment by and subsequent termination as an employee of the Seller, up to the date of the execution of this Agreement other than with respect to obligations set forth in this Agreement. This includes but is not limited to claims at law or equity or sounding in contract (express or implied) or tort arising under state workers' compensation claims or state workers' compensation laws (if applicable), or federal, state, or local laws prohibiting religion, national origin, color, age, sex, race, disability, veteran or any other forms of discrimination. This further includes any and all claims arising under the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (ELSA), the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act of 2009, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the Warn Act, Section 1981, the Equal Pay Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), as amended, or claims growing out of any legal restrictions on the Seller's right to terminate its employees. Each Principal of Ouch however, may challenge the validity of any ADEA release contained in this Agreement. If any of the Principals of Ouch breaches this covenant, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, they agree that they will, on a several and not joint basis, indemnify the Seller for all damages and expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Seller in defending, participating in, or investigating any matter or proceeding covered by this Section 4.02; provided however, that the indemnity obligations of this Section 4.02 do not apply to a claim challenging the knowing and voluntary nature of any ADEA release portion of this Agreement. In any ADEA action, the Seller will have the right to recover attorney's fees and costs consistent with the provisions of the ADEA. When used in this Section 4.02, the term Seller shall include any affiliates of Seller which employed any of the Principals of Ouch. The Principals of Ouch also acknowledge that (a) they have the right to revoke their respective release of any claims arising under the ADEA within seven (7) calendar days after signing this Agreement by providing written notice of revocation to Seller.
